SUPPLEMENTING AMENDMENT

Sir:

By an Amendment filed September 30, 1999, corrections to the specification were made because Applicant had discovered that the description of Figure 1 was inconsistent with Figure 1 itself when preparing the sequence listing from Figure 1. By a communication mailed November 8, 1999, to which this is in response, some corrections to the Sequence Listing submitted in that earlier amendment were required. In particular, three DNA sequences had included "n" and the
